REFLECTION

Easter Sunday

Today we reach the third day of the Tridium, the three most important days in the year of the Church. Jesus risen from the dead. Jesus conquering that biggest fear of all humans -“death”.

All around us are the symbols of new life, eggs, flowers, and hopefully sunshine. As a child and as an adult one of the things I most look forward to at Easter, is a big chocolate Easter egg. Coming home from Mass and eating as much chocolate as I can and then feeling ill in the evening. I’m not sure that I am not alone in this ritual.

Easter day is a time when we celebrate all the good things, we thank God for life, creation and our redemption. If for any reason we are upset today or feeling that life is getting on top of us, then just look at the cross and see Christ triumphant. He is our compassionate King, not our Judgmental King. He is always here with us watching over us, helping us.

Our God is a God who sent us his Son, sacrificed him for our salvation, to save us. God then sent him back risen from the dead to show that death should hold no fear for us, because we too will have eternal life in Christ.

Today allow Jesus to embrace you, allow his smiling face to penetrate your hearts, let us rejoice that Jesus our Lord is risen from the dead and is with us for all time.
