REFLECTION

Reflection for the 31st Sunday of the year B

In today’s Gospel Jesus reminds us of the Greatest Commandment which is to love God and love one another above all things. The Jewish people had copious rules they had to keep and so for an observant Scribe to receive the response Jesus gave to his question was amazing.

This last week I have been leading Assemblies at school and the theme has been from darkness to light. I was informing them of my last trip to London. My sister has just had twins and ask me to take them for a walk in their buggy. As I was walking through the Park a group of young people looked over. The boy twin gave them a big smile and kept smiling, eventually the group came over and fussed all over him. It reminded me of the differences a smile can make.

We all need light in our lives and sometimes a smile or a kind word can go a long way. The Scribe in our Gospel today comes to the realisation that the most important rule of love supersedes all other rules. May we help others to come to a realisation that a smile can bring light into someone else’s life.

Please support our coffee morning in one or more of the following:

Invite friends, family and neighbours, help on the morning (no experience necessary), donate items to sell, new ideas for fundraising stalls.

We particularly need homemade cakes and savouries, quality bric-a-brac, raffle items, tombola donations in advance to include festive food, chocolates, bottles, any unwanted gifts etc.

Ideally please bring items to Church in advance and leave them in the porch, or for freshly cooked foods, bring them along on the day. All helpers very much appreciated. Please make yourself know to Mary, Sheila or Tracy.

Traditionally this is the most profitable fund-raiser of the year.
