REFLECTION

The Epiphany of the Lord

Our Gospel this morning reminds us of another well-known event from the Christmas scene. Where are told that some wise men travel to see the Baby Jesus. We are told that they bring three gifts of Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh.

The Wise men represent each one of us at the crib scene. I often wonder what gift I would take if I was going to visit Baby Jesus. It would have to be something precious, something special. But what? Would it be a golden rattle or a diamond encrusted baby bottle? The gifts the wise men bring reflect the importance of Jesus in the here and now and a glimpse into his future life. Gold represents Kingship, Frankincense represents Priesthood and Myrrh, suffering and death.

In tradition the wise men are even given the names of Balthasar, Melchior and Casper. They are depicted in the very early paintings of the Nativity. So, they are very much part of the Nativity story.

The gifts which we bring to the Crib and to Jesus, is the Gift of ourselves. We stand before God and someone made in his image and likeness. We enter this Crib scene with all our God given gifts and talents and through our Baptism we go forth to tell the world of the saving power of this Holy Baby.

Fr. Anthony would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your generous gifts and wishes over the Christmas Season and to wish you all a Blessed and Fruitful New Year.
