REFLECTION

Third Sunday of Easter Year A

In today’s Gospel we hear the account of Jesus appearing to two of his disciples on the road to Emmaus. It probably seems strange to us that neither of them recognise Jesus, we know he has his resurrected body, but surely his own disciples would recognise him, yet they don’t, it’s not until they sit down to eat and Jesus blesses and breaks the bread that they recognise him and the minute they do he disappears from their sight.

Many years ago when I was in a religious order training to be a monk we would occasionally go on retreat to Devon. One afternoon we took part in what the Prior called an “Emmaus walk.” He drove us to a deserted piece of coastline and said that he would collect again in an hour further up the coast. First of all we moaned about the training, then we discussed why we thought we were being called to Priesthood and how God played a part in our decision. The Prior told us that God was with us during the walk.

Our lives are an Emmaus walk, because we journey with Jesus. We are never left alone. We won’t always recognise him but He is there. There will be times that we really feel his presence, when we feel we can almost touch him.

For us the presence of the Lord is especially present during the celebration of the Eucharist. One of the main actions which takes place during the Mass is when the Priest breaks the bread, which is for us a sign that this really is the Body of Christ. Jesus is truly present and he enters our lives through the Eucharist

Fr. Anthony and Sheona will be running from Lanherne Convent to MHT Church, Newquay on Saturday 6th May to raise funds for the trip to Lourdes. If you would like to sponsor them, you can make your donations at reception before or after the event. Thank you.

Following the appeal by Fr. Liam for the Missions, we urgently need one more parishioner to help with the missionary activity of Missio (APF). The amount of time involved is minimal, just to give a maximum of ten magazines, four times a year to other parishioners at Sunday Mass, and to collect their mission boxes once a year.

If you think you can help the missions in this small way, speak to Jodie or call Mary on 07815 684364.
