REFLECTION

Reflection Sixth Sunday of Easter year B

In our first reading from the Acts of the Apostles we hear of Cornelius who falls at the feet of Peter. Peter tells him to get up and reminds him that he is only a man. Cornelius falls at the feet of Peter because Jesus has chosen him to lead the Apostles.

Many of the great leaders throughout history are the ones who retain not only their humanity but also the ones who know they have faults and are not perfect. Peter reminds Cornelius of this fact, that he is human. Jesus in the Gospel talks about love. He loves us and leads in a loving way. That’s what he wants us to do, to love one another as he has loved us.

To know how to love is to know how to be human, to know how to be human is to know that we have faults and need God in our lives.
