REFLECTION

Reflection first Sunday of Lent year C

We all have temptations in life that we find hard to ignore. We can even work out ways to give into them and still say it is OK. Jesus is in the desert for forty days and is being tempted by the devil. To make matters worse he is without food.

As a child I can remember every Friday night we would be allowed to drink fizzy drinks. The assortment would always have a couple of tins of Coke, may be a Fanta and one tin of Lilt. My two sisters and I liked Lilt. So, we would take it in turns to have the Lilt. But it was so tempting to get to the kitchen first and grab the tin before anyone else. For some reason that tin seemed to shine brighter than the others. It wasn't till much later that we worked out we could share it between the three of us and I must admit, it tasted much better when all three of us were drinking it. It meant we all had a very happy Friday night.

Lent is a moment when we can reassess our lives and the directions in which they are going. Are there things that we can do to make life better for others and for ourselves as well?

It is never easy to make choices and sometimes we don't know what the right choice is. Life is full of complications, let us ask Jesus to help clear the confusion, so that we may make the right choice.
