REFLECTION

Reflection Fifth Sunday of Easter Year A

In today’s Gospel, we hear heaven being described as a place of many rooms and that Jesus is waiting to welcome us in to heaven. Jesus reminds us that he is the way, the truth and the life. Both Thomas and Philip question Jesus wanting to know the way and wanting to see the Father.

Whenever we travel anywhere in our world we always like to know where we are going. Sat Nav’s make finding destinations very easy, providing we put the correct information in. However, it was much more fun when maps were used to navigate. When my parents went on honeymoon to Ireland, my Mother was given the map to read whilst my Father drove the car. They had a lovely drive through Wales and were well on the way to meeting the ferry at Fishguard. My Mother unfortunately fell asleep and my Father kept following the sign for “Ferry”, and they ended up in Pembroke docks. Not a good start to the honeymoon.

Jesus gives us many signs in the Gospels and the Church gives us many signs as we live our lives. Both are trying to help us to reach the correct destination which is heaven. There will be occasions when we think we know a better way, or when we think we know a quicker way. The only Map that we need is the Bible. In the Bible shows us time and again that is, The Way, the Truth and The Life. He is the only Sat Nav that we need.
