REFLECTION

Reflection 32nd Sunday year B

In today’s Gospel we hear Jesus’s warning against finery and we hear of a poor widow who gives all she owns to the Treasury.

I am always reminded of a football match our Priest Training College went to play. We were playing the Anglican Training College in Oxford. When we arrived they were all discussing rowing, rugby and polo. We were all laughing thinking that the match would be a walkover. To make us even more confident of how tough we were they were all wearing sporting jackets. As we got ready we were talking amongst ourselves and thought the match would be easy for us to win. We would be gentle with them and score no more than eight goals!!

It ended up being a draw and one of the toughest matches we had ever played. It reminded us to never take anything at face value. In life we never know the qualities of one another simply by our outward appearance. I was once told that it doesn’t matter what you wear so long as you do your job and being a Christian that means caring for one another.

For those who take selfies with their mobile phones, remember the photo you take is how you appear to others. If it was a true selfie it would be able to take a picture of your heart and soul.

donate items to sell, new ideas for fundraising stalls.

We particularly need homemade cakes and savouries, quality bric-a-brac, raffle items, tombola donations in advance to include festive food, chocolates, bottles, any unwanted gifts etc.

Ideally please bring items to Church in advance and leave them in the porch, or for freshly cooked foods, bring them along on the day. All helpers very much appreciated. Please make yourself know to Mary, Sheila or Tracy.

Traditionally this is the most profitable fund-raiser of the year.
