REFLECTION

Reflection – Sixth Sunday of Easter (Year A)

In today’s first reading we hear about the Apostles sending Peter and John to the Samaritan town to confirm the Samaritans, because although they had been baptised, they had yet to receive the Holy Spirit. Now in today’s Church we are lucky because we receive the Holy Spirit on two separate occasions. So if you like we get a double dose of it. We receive it first of all when we are baptised and then secondly when we are confirmed. Now this doesn’t mean that we received it fully at Baptism and then half at Confirmation. Rather we receive it fully at Baptism and fully at Confirmation. So many of you, and especially many of you teenagers, may be wondering why on earth do we have to endure a Confirmation programme and a Confirmation Mass if we have the Holy Spirit from our Baptism.

Well I suppose it’s a bit like buying a new computer. When you first get it everything is there and there are many things that it is able to do. Unfortunately in my case it would probably crash.

However, if we receive it when we are a baby, although all the possibilities are there, we probably don’t understand it and we don’t exactly know what it is. It is not until we get a little older that we are able to understand it and use it to its full potential. And so with the Holy Spirit, it is only when we get a bit older that we can have some idea of what it does and mean for us. And so that is the time when we receive instruction and begin to understand what the Holy Spirit can actually do for us.

In the Gospel we are told that it is this Holy Spirit which has been given to us by the Father and that this Spirit of truth will never leave us. And so although Jesus is no longer with us, the Holy Spirit is always with us. It is the true presence of God in our World. It is something that operates from within us. It operates from within our hearts and souls and helps us to lead the kind of lives that Jesus asks us to lead. We may choose of course to ignore the Holy Spirit, to keep the gifts it gives us hidden. But that is our choice. The Spirit is there. It is up to us whether we choose to use it or ignore it.
