REFLECTION

Nativity of John the Baptist

It may seem strange to us that the Solemnity of John the Baptist is celebrated even when it falls on a Sunday. Usually Sunday is always the day of the resurrection, yet today we celebrate John the Baptist.

John is the one who prepares the way for Jesus. He is the precursor, the last of the prophets. This feast reminds us that he is a special baby, miraculous things happen at his circumcision. He will baptise many and is the one who will baptise Jesus.

It reminds us that every baby is special. Every baby that is born is a gift from God and part of God’s creation. As a Catholic Priest I will never have a child of my own, but my sister has twins who are still very young and I do wonder what they will be like when they grow up, what will they do? The Mother of John the Baptist must have had the same thoughts.

All of us have birthdays when we celebrate another year of life, this reminds us that we are all special in the eyes of God. We don’t know our future, but we know that whatever happens, God will be with us.
