REFLECTION

Reflection for Seventeenth Sunday year C

In the reading from Genesis and in the Gospel we see Abraham and the disciples being taken into the Lord’s trust. Abraham is reflecting on God. Whilst he stands before God he leaves the others go to Sodom. In the Gospel, the disciples ask Jesus how to pray and he teaches them the Our Father. One of the wonderful things of life is when someone takes you into their trust.

This coming Thursday six of our young people from the Parish will journey to Lourdes in the South of France, where our Lady appeared to St. Bernadette. Their job is to assist the sick and elderly whilst they are on pilgrimage. I always feel that Lourdes is one of the few places on earth where you can almost reach up and touch heaven. For all the pilgrims that go, it is a place where they can be assured that they are taken into the confidence of God.

I only wish that I could somehow let everyone see how wonderful and caring the young people are in our Parish. The way that they will care for the sick and elderly is always amazing. Whilst we are there we will of course pray for the Parish and its three Churches and we will light a candle for all your intentions.

Our lady of Lourdes: Pray for us.
