REFLECTION

“None of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.”
 In the Gospel today, Jesus reminds us to be ready for anything that may harm our relationship with God and one another.

I am always reminded of a friend of mine who always wanted to be a film star. All the way through our childhood and teenage years he wanted nothing else. Eventually he was an extra on a Soap. After that experience he changed and moved on to another ambition and is now a builder. I asked him once why did he not continue? He answered “ I’m a better builder than actor!” In life we can have perceptions of what is glamorous or what is worthwhile.

God has created us the way we are because we are who He wants us to be. Jesus reminds us in the Gospel that in order to be a disciple we have to try and love who we are. He wants us to use all our gifts and talents. There will be times when we hate the things we do by mistake, when we have an argument with others we can sometimes hate what we have done. Jesus doesn’t want us to hate ourselves, He wants us to love who we are. But to be a disciple there will be times when we fail. But our response must always be to keep persevering to love God and love who we are.
