REFLECTION

“You are the Christ of God. The Son of Man is destined to suffer grievously.”
In today’s Gospel Jesus asks his disciples a question, “Who do the crowds say I am?” How often do we ask ourselves the same type of question, “I wonder what people think of me?” or, “I need to better at this!” The answer that Peter gives Jesus is correct because he describes Jesus as “The Christ of God” which is who Jesus is.

We are all created in the image and likeness of God and he creates us the way we are because we are who Jesus wants and loves. He wants us to be here in the world at this moment in time. My aunt always had a lovely expression if somebody made a complete mess of something, she would say, “ At least his mother loves him!” As Christians we know for certain that whatever happens to us, “At least God loves us!”

The Gospel also reminds us that to follow Christ we will have to suffer at some points, but we will also have great joy. Remember we exist because we are important to creation, we are important to God and we are important to our World. Jesus is the Christ of God and we are made in the image and likeness of God.
