REFLECTION

In today's Gospel the Sadducees are asking a complex question about heaven involving “Marriage”. The Sadducees didn’t believe in an afterlife and so are trying to make point.

In heaven the Marriage is between God and humanity, God drawing us back to himself. We live in a world where Faith is questioned constantly by those who don’t believe in God.

I remember a little girl telling me that she had been to heaven on her holiday, when I questioned what it was like she said it was like a beach in Spain. I said “How did you get there?” She said, “By Plane!” Because the plane had gone through the clouds and into the sky she thought that she had gone to heaven.

We don’t really know what heaven will be like, all we know is what Jesus has told us. Heaven will be life in Paradise with God. For those who don’t believe in God we pray that they will have the biggest shock when they die and realise that all that Jesus has told us is true. So we must never stop telling others about Jesus and that he died so that everyone may have eternal life.

Fr. Anthony +

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Let my prayer come into your presence. Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.
RESPONSORIAL PSALM: I shall be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory, O Lord.
GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: Alleluia, Alleluia, Jesus Christ is the First-born from the dead; to him be glory and power for ever and ever, Alleluia.
Communion Antiphon: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.
