Christmas Day

As we enter this Christmas day, we reflect on the events in Bethlehem, all those years ago, when a young girl called Mary gave birth to a baby called Jesus, in a stable in a country occupied by a foreign power.

We could be talking about a scene in many countries today. It is hard to imagine God allowing his Son to be born into a situation like this. But He does. Jesus comes into the world amongst the lowest of the low. He is born into poverty. Yet his coming will be heralded by an angel, a star will guide wise men to pay him homage and King Herod will be scared.

This baby will be a ray of hope, he will grow up to perform miracles, He will heal the sick and dine with sinners. He will bring joy and laughter, but will also challenge leaders and the authorities.

Jesus will open the gates of Heaven and allow us the ability to gain Salvation.

I hope you all have a very Happy and Holy Christmas.

Fr. Anthony +
