

Jesus, with the power of the Spirit in him returned to Galilee.

In today's Gospel we hear of the moment Jesus begins his mission, we are told that what he intends to do and how he will reveal God to us.

How often can we be left disappointed because someone says that they are going to do something and then it doesn't happen? A few years ago I was with my sister and a few of her friends down in Sussex, one of the friends had her daughter with her. We had planned, that, during the day we would go to the beach and have a swim, however, this didn't materialise as we got caught up shopping. When the little girl was told this, she was not happy; "You promised!" she said. Trying to rescue the situation I remembered that I had a paddling pool in the back of my car. (Something every Priest should have!) So when she was told that we could fill that up, a smile appeared!

Jesus never promises anything that he will not do. Every sentence that he reads from the Prophet Isaiah he will achieve, but not in the way that many will want. Jesus comes to bring liberty to our hearts; open the eyes of his followers to the truth and giving self-worth to those who feel downtrodden. Jesus wants everyone to know that they are priceless in the eyes of God.

MOST HOLY TRINITY R.C. CHURCH

24TH JAN –THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FR. ANTHONY O’GORMAN

Entrance Antiphon:

O sing a new song to the Lord: Sing to the Lord, all the earth. In his Presence and majesty and splendour, strength and honour In his holy place.

Responsorial Psalm:

Your words are Spirit, Lord and they are life.

Gospel Acclamation: (Sung)

Alleluia, Alleluia, The Lord has sent me to bring the good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives. Alleluia.

Communion Antiphon:

Look toward the Lord and be radiant: Let your faces not be abashed.

