MESSAGE FROM FR. BRIAN – Thank you all for the thoughtful and wonderful gift of the candle and stand. I was truly moved by your thoughtfulness. This gift will be first used when I celebrate a Mass in the Sisters little Chapel for my own quiet Easter Vigil. Of course my thoughts and prayers will be with you as Fr. Anthony celebrates the Vigil at Most Holy Trinity. The last few months have been the most difficult of my life and it is only with the love of God, my family, the Sisters, friends and parishioners that I struggle on. Please remember me in your prayers on the 31st March, when I have an examination/x-ray to see if I am ready for further surgery. As we begin Holy Week, please know that the people of the Parish are in my heart and prayers. How I long to be with you at this very special time. May God Bless you all.

PLEASE NOTE – Mass on Wednesday will be at 8.30 am due to the Chrism Mass at Plymouth Cathedral at 12 noon.

We would like to thank a Parishioner of our Parish that has beautifully designed our Pascal Candle, they have also commissioned a smaller version for Fr. Brian to have to let him know that he is very much loved and missed by his Parishioners and we wish him a speedy recovery.
