REFLECTION –

“Everything the Father has is mine: all the Spirit tells you will be taken from what is mine.”

Today is the feast day of our Parish, today we celebrate the Most Holy Trinity. It is so hard to describe the Trinity and really the only word we need is “Love”. The Trinity is the perfect community.

The description I like, is what the Greeks call “Perichoresis” or the heavenly dance. I can always remember being taught to dance by the cook at one of my parishes. I was taught how to waltz but only the two steps I never graduated to the third step. When done perfectly it should seem as if two people are dancing as one. If one looks at professional dancers, at times it is hard to separate them, they appear as one, gliding across the floor.

If we think of Father, Son and Holy Spirit together in the heavenly dance, gliding across the dancefloor of heaven, then we can get an idea of the love and beauty of the Trinity.

Let us celebrate our Feast, our fantastic Church is dedicated to the greatest form of love and the most perfect community, our one true loving God.
