REFLECTION – “I give you a new commandment: Love one another;

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us a commandment by which we are to live our lives by loving one another. Love will bring us closer to God our loving Father. In one School where I taught, we had six houses into which the students were split for sporting events. I was in charge of “Rome” house and our big rivals were “Antioch” house. Antioch was renowned for their sporting ability, whilst Rome was famous for being artistic. Antioch always seemed to beat us in every sport. We had one basketball match where they beat us by a huge score and after the match I thought I had better console my team, but when they walked off the court towards me they were grinning and patting each other on the back and saying well done. I wasn't pleased and asked what had happened. They all smiled and said “It's only a game!” In life we can be competitive and try to be the best, yet Jesus reminds us that, to be the best, we need to understand Love and really do the best we have to love one another. Friendship and understanding are important, so is love. If we can try and love one another then people we know us as the disciples of Jesus.
