Message from Fr. Brian – This weekend we begin the season of Advent. The word “Advent comes from the Latin “Adventus” and means “coming”. Advent enables us to prepare ourselves to remember and celebrate the coming, the birth of Jesus at Christmas. Despite the many demands placed on us in this busy time, may we take this time wisely as we prepare to celebrate our Lord's birth.

Mass for Christmas and the New Year - December 24th, Vigil of the Nativity of the Lord – 9.00 pm with Carols and Readings from 8.30 pm. December 25th Mass at 10.30 am, December 26th, Feast of St Stephen, Mass at 11.00 am. January 1st, Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, Mass at 12 Noon. All other Masses as per usual.

A Reminder – From Sat 4th January 2014 the Vigil Mass will be celebrated at 6.00 pm

CHRISTMAS HAMPERS – It has become the practise to have a raffle for a Christmas Hamper. Therefore I would be most grateful if you could provide contents for this hamper. THANK YOU.

Extraordinary Meeting of the Synod of Bishops 2014 “Pastoral Challenges of the Family in the context of Evangelisation”. Catholics throughout the world are invited to complete a questionnaire concerning the family to help prepare for the Synod. If you wish to take part there is an on-line form at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/familysynod2014>.

From Fr. Brian – November is a month when we as Catholics remember our departed loved ones. Therefore from the beginning of this month a “Book of Remembrance” will be available at the back of church. You are invited to write in the book those you wish to remember in your prayers during the celebration of the Mass. This book will be carried with the Offertory during the Masses of November and be placed at the foot of the Altar. Of course we still have the private mass intentions.

There will be no First Holy Communion Classes until the 21st Dec 2013 and there will be no Confirmation Class on Sunday 1st Dec 2013.

LAST CHANCE, SEATS GOING FAST.
